BARNUMS FOR THE BIBLELESS

A newsletter from Dave & Sunny Barnum

Sunny and I (Dave) have put our journey to serving with Wycliffe Bible Translators into full swing. In April we attended our orientation class at the Wycliffe headquarters in Florida. We were really blessed to be there. They did so much to prepare us to be better missionaries and to get ready to serve full time. We also got to learn a lot more about what God is doing through Bible translation. We knew we wanted to be involved with Wycliffe before we attended the orientation. However, now we know what an impact it has on the people groups we're trying to reach. We are really excited to be joining the effort!

Since this is our first official newsletter let me take a moment to tell you what we'll be doing. God has put it on my heart that I should be using my skills with technology to further the gospel. What this means for me and my family is that I will be a network administrator at the Wycliffe Headquarters. Through this role I will be keeping the organization's large computer systems up and running so that all of the Wycliffe's ~6,000 members can work toward the task of translating the Bible into every last language. There are still over 2,000 languages that don't have a verse of God's Word in their own language.

Dave, Sunny, & Kayla

We are eager to start our ministry, but we need a team to come alongside us. We need partners to lift us up in prayer. We know the power of prayer and really appreciate those who are willing to pray for us. Wycliffe also requires that we raise 100% of our financial support before we can begin our assignment. Please pray about what God would have you do to reach the last 350 million people who don't have His Word in their own language. Please visit <http://support.thebarnums.com> to join our team of prayer and/or financial partners. Lastly, to find out more about Wycliffe visit <http://www.wycliffe.org>.

Love,

Dave, Sunny, & Kayla
